Defendants.

The United States filed this civil forfeiture case against assets belonging to claimant Talon V. White. The United States also filed a separate civil forfeiture case against real property belonging to Mr. White. See United States v. 935 SW 7th Street, 6:18-cv-02057-BR..

Both cases were stayed pending the completion of a criminal investigation against Mr. White.

Mr. White has pleaded guilty pursuant to a plea agreement with the government to copyright infringement and tax evasion. See United States v. White, 6:19-cr-504-AA. As part of this plea agreement, Mr. White agreed to withdraw his claims in both civil forfeiture cases and agreed to forfeiture of the assets. Id. at ECF No. 9. The parties anticipate that a portion of these funds will ultimately be transferred to the Clerk's Office for purposes of paying restitution as detailed in the plea agreement. Mr. White completed the claim withdrawals, which have been filed, and the United States is, therefore, moving to lift the stay and for a judgment of forfeiture.

DATED: December 19, 2019

Respectfully submitted,

BILLY J. WILLIAMS
